

Cozumel Mexico Vacation Guide

Here are the instructions on how to get to Cozumel from the Cancun airport:

After clearing customs at the Cancun airport terminal you will see several kiosks that offer transfers to Playa del Carmen.

One option is: Look for the desks that offer shuttle service to "Playa del Carmen". The shuttles will cost about 180 pesos for each person and you will share the shuttle with others. Or you can take a taxi and hire it exclusively to take up to a party of 4 to Playa del Carmen for about 500 pesos. This is the fastest way to get to Playa del Carmen.

Another option is: If you would like to save some money take the ADO bus line, which takes a little longer (not much). ADO's counter is about the last one on the left. The ADO bus costs 80 pesos per person. After buying your tickets you will need to take your bags outside and veer toward the right (straight ahead are the taxi's). If in doubt just ask anyone where "ADO" is.

In either case, do avoid the desks that say Tourist Advisory, as this is Time Share.

From Playa del Carmen you just follow everyone to the Ferry (or if in doubt just ask where is the "Barco a Cozumel"). There is a ticket booth at the entrance to the dock where you can buy tickets to Cozumel (cost: approx. $23.00 USD per person/one way). The crossing takes approximately 30 minutes. To make advance ticket reservation here are the links to the Mexico water jets and Ultramar Ferry Service. The hours of operation for the Ferry's change so make sure to check the schedules while you are on line.

It is very easy to get here by following these instructions and we have many guests who come in from Cancun so don't worry about the details. Just print out and follow these instructions when you arrive and you will not have a problem!
