

Here are the instructions on how to get to Cozumel from the Cancun airport:

After clearing customs at the Cancun airport terminal you will see several kiosks that offer transfers to Playa del Carmen.

One option is: Look for the desks on the right hand side for the shuttle buses to "Playa del Carmen". It will cost 180 pesos for each person. This is the fastest way to get to Playa del Carmen.

Another option is: If you would like to save some money take the ADO bus line, which takes a little longer. ADO's kiosk is the last one on the right. The ADO bus costs 80 pesos per person. After buying your tickets you will need a porter to carry your bags as it is a long walk to get to the bus, which is located on the other end of the terminal.

In either case, do avoid the desks that say Tourist Advisory, as this is Time Share.

From Playa del Carmen you just follow everyone to the Ferry (or if in doubt just ask where is the "Barco a Cozumel"). There is a ticket booth at the entrance to the dock where you can buy tickets to Cozumel (cost: approx. 100 pesos or $10.00 USD per person/one way). The crossing takes approximately 30 minutes.

It is very easy to get here by following these instructions and we have many guests who come in from Cancun so don't worry about the details. Just print out this e-mail and follow these instructions when you arrive and you will not have a problem!

Sincerely,

Bob Rodriguez
